Serious Tasks for Carranza Involved in Recognition
United States to Lay an Embargo on Arms to Villa

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The governments of Bolivia, Uruguay and Guatemala remained to be heard from today in approval of the action of the United States government in deciding to recognize the Carranza government in Mexico. The other countries which participated in the Pan-American Peace Conference through their diplomatic representatives—Argentina, Brazil and Chile—already have sanctioned the work of the conference. The approval of the first named governments is expected momentarily.

The next step to be taken by the United States will be determination of the form of recognition which shall be extended. It is expected to be extended this week, possibly through formal notification to Eliseo Arredondo, Carranza's official agent here. Prohibition of shipment of arms to factions opposed to the Carranza government then will follow.

Although an arms embargo will materially weaken the resources of the Villa element, M. Diaz Lombardo, foreign minister of the Carranza government, in a formal statement given out here, announced that the struggle will be continued in Mexico. Similar advice of Carranza's official agent here, prohibition of shipment of arms to factions opposed to the Carranza government then will follow.

GUARANTEES GIVEN.

An extract from a memorandum presented to the Pan-American conference on behalf of General Carranza contains the following articles outlining the program of his government:

"1. The constitutional government shall afford to foreigners residing in Mexico all the guarantees to which they are entitled, according to our laws, and shall amply protect their lives, their freedom and the enjoyment of the rights which the constitution grants them. Indemnities for the damages which the revolution has caused to them, insofar as such indemnities may be just, and which shall be determined by a procedure to be established later. The government shall assume also the responsibility of legitimate financial obligations.

"2. The first concern of the constitutional government shall be to re-establish peace within the province of law and order to the end that all the inhabitants of Mexico, both native and foreign, shall equally enjoy the benefits of true justice and be interested in co-operating to the support of the government emanating from the constitutional order. In due time an amnesty shall be enacted in keeping with the necessities of the country and the situation, which in no way shall exempt those under it of the civil responsibilities they may have incurred.

DISESTABLISHED CHURCH.

"3. The constitutional laws of Mexico, known as the laws of laws and reform, which establish the separation of the church and the state, and which guarantee the individual right of worship in accordance with his own conscience and without offering public order, shall be strictly observed, therefore no one shall suffer in his life, freedom and property because of his religious beliefs. The state shall continue to be the property of the nation according to laws in force, and the constitutional government shall again cede for the purpose of worship those which may be necessary.

"4. There shall be no confiscations in connection with the settlement of the agrarian question. This problem shall be solved by an equitable distribution of the lands still owned by the government; by the recovery of those lots which may have been illegally taken from individuals or communities; by the purchase and expropriation of large tracts of land, if necessary; by all other means of acquisition permitted by the laws of the country. The constitution of Mexico forbids privileges and therefore all kinds of properties, regardless of whoever the owners may be, whether operated or not, shall in the future be subject to the proportionate payment of a tax in accordance with a just and equitable valuation.

"5. All property legitimately acquired from individuals or legal governments, and which may not constitute a privilege or a monopoly, shall be respected.

INTERNAL "TRIPLI."

"6. The peace and safety of a nation depends from the clear understanding of citizenship; therefore the government shall take pains in developing public education and to this end it shall utilize all co-operation rendered in good faith; permitting the establishment of private schools subject to the approval of the government.

Chief Stand Against Invaders to Be in Mountains

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 11, 1:05 p. m.—The Austro-German armies, which crossed the Danube and Save rivers and occupied Belgrade, are meeting with stubborn resistance with the Serbian advance defenses, but have not yet come in contact with the main Serbian forces.

The Serbian plan of campaign depends considerably upon the amount of assistance they will receive from allied troops, but it is not believed that they will attempt in any event to make a decided stand north of the mountain range near Kraguyevatz, which they already have proved to be a line offering superb facilities for defense.

Telegrams from the Balkans, though not minimizing the seriousness of the Serbian positions, reflect a tone of cheerful confidence in the ability of the Allies ultimately to check the Austro-German invasion and successfully meet any future attack from the side of Bulgaria. The national danger, say these telegrams, has united Serbia as never before. Throughout the country men physically unfit for the regular army and women and old men are arming for the defense of their country.

The population of Macedonian Serbia has gathered into bands, with the object of repulsing a possible Bulgarian attack. In addition to 300,000 soldiers, a million Serbians of both sexes and all ages are said to be ready to dispute all attempts at Austro-German-Bulgarian conquest.

Attacks by the Austro-German forces which are invading Serbia are proceeding to the south of Belgrade. It was officially announced today at Berlin. The announcement adds that the crossing of the Danube by the invading forces had been completed.

In the western theater of the war the German attack in the vicinity of Loos appears to have subsided, having accomplished nothing, except the securing of a temporary partial footing in some trenches, from which the assailants of the allied line afterwards were expelled. Since October 4, according to Field Marshal Sir John French, the only change of consequences on the Loos front has been a steady gain of ground by the British between Hill No. 70, which is the key to the situation, and Hilluch.

Ishi to Go Back to Native Hills

By Associated Press.
BERKELEY, Oct. 11.—Ishi, who was captured three years ago in the wilds of the Sierra, is to be sent back to his native hills. This mountain native, who has been living for the last three years in a tent at the Affiliated College, does not thrive under the conditions of ordinary life and must go back to his home or he will die of tuberculosis, according to his investigators.

Ishi is the last of the tribe of Southern Yana Indians and his capture three years ago was heralded as a remarkable discovery. He was brought to San Francisco, where a study of his language and habits was begun by a number of professors. He has been gradually adjusting for the last year until his condition has become dangerous and he will be shipped without delay to his haunts in the Sierra.

Oregon's "Mother of Suffrage" Is Dead

By Associated Press.
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 11.—Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, known as "The Mother of Woman Suffrage in Oregon," died early this morning, aged 81. Mrs. Duniway underwent an operation from an infection in her foot soon after a visit to San Francisco a few weeks ago, from the effects of which she never rallied.

Mrs. Duniway was a sister of the late Harvey W. Scott, editor of the Oregonian, and had a notable literary career. She was the author of several books and published for sixteen years "The New Northwest," a monthly magazine. In January, 1910, she was the duly accredited delegate of Oregon to the conservation congress of governors at Washington. She made a strong plea for equal suffrage at that convention. She was one of the prominent factors in the fight for suffrage in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Seeks Punishment of Representatives

By Associated Press.
ROME, Oct. 10, via Paris, Oct. 11.—Foreign Minister Sonnino has been intercepted by Deputy Colajanni as to whether Italian diplomatic representatives abroad who had failed in their duty were to go unpunished. The interception is supposed to have reference to the case of Marquis Garroff, Italian ambassador at Constantinople, who, it has been asserted, although informed in July, 1914, by the German ambassador at Constantinople, Baron von Wangenheim, that the Austrian note to Serbia made war a certainty, neglected to inform the Italian government.

Registration in Off Year Startles N. Y.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Political leaders were astonished today by the heavy registration of voters in this city as shown by the revised figures of the total for next year. The aggregate of 666,129 was nearly 7000 more than registered last year, despite the fact that this is counted as an "off" year, when there is to be no election of governor and only two members of Congress are to be chosen.

Leaders of the woman suffrage movement asserted that the increase was due largely to the earnest campaign which has been made in behalf of the suffrage cause. The anti-suffragists claimed that the heavy registration was an indication of a strong vote in opposition to suffrage.

LOCAL MEN WIN GAME

ARE ST. MARY'S STARS

Three St. Mary's College students won this afternoon's game for the Boston Red Sox, and a fourth St. Mary's College boy scored Philadelphia's only run.

"Dutch" Leonard, a product of the Oakland college, pitched a sensational game for Boston, holding Philadelphia to three hits, striking out six, and not allowing a single base on balls. From the third inning on not a Quaker reached first base.

In the ninth inning Harry Hooper, a former St. Mary's student, opened with a single and got as far as third, with two out. Duffy Lewis, another St. Mary's College boy, then came to bat and crushed the first base hit to left field, sending his former college mate home with the winning run.

This is the first time in the history of America's famous diamond classic that one college has succeeded in carrying off all the honors of a world's series victory.

The news was telephoned to St. Mary's College by The Tribune and conveyed to the student body while they were at lunch, creating wild enthusiasm. Telegrams of congratulation were forwarded to Burns, Hooper, Lewis and Leonard.

By Associated Press.
BRATTLEFIELD, BOSTON, Oct. 11.—The Boston Americans again turned the tide with a ninth-inning finish today, defeating the Philadelphia pennant winners of the National League by a score of 2 to 1 before 42,300 people, the largest crowd that ever saw a world's series game.

"Dutch" Leonard, the Red Sox port-side pitcher, held the Philadelphia hitters through the game, permitting them to score in only one inning.

Speaker's batting featured the game, while Paskert roared the outfield for Philadelphia and cut off several hits.

Hooper's hit, a sacrifice, an infield out and Lewis' smash to center put over the final run for Boston.

The official figures were given out as follows:

Attendance	42,300
Box admissions	$63,191.00
Players	44,925.14
National commissions	8,519.10
share	16,974.35

It was a wonderful day, with not a cloud in the sky.

Newer were conditions more ideal for a championship contest.

Grover Cleveland Alexander made his second start for Philadelphia.

Manager Carrigan's selection for pitcher was "Dutch" Leonard, a former "port side" of the American League. The Sox had all the advantages that goes with the home crowd and there were more than double the local supporters on hand to cheer them than the Phillies could crowd into their yard on Broad street.

Leonard and Carrigan were announced as the battery for Boston. Alexander and Burns were announced as the battery for Philadelphia.

It was passed in 1807 granted the women of Norway the franchise to the extent that those who had paid their taxes for the year preceding, or the year immediately before, were eligible to elect members of the national assembly.
